Please accept this short note as a means of informing you about the AlleghanyJournal.com

If you own, control or work with publicity in any area or regional organization, there is a very strong chance we're interested in your news, photos, calendar events and more.

The AlleghanyJournal.com is online only. We strive to make our content easily accessible via phone, tablet, desktop, Ipad and just about any other mobile device so that it is available 24/7/365. There is no charge for this news service, nor subscription of any kind. The "Journal" also operates a very active Facebook page and sells advertising of several types on AlleghanyJournal.com, all of its news pages, our obituary page and several other locations. For rates/ideas and examples, please either call us at 540-865-0299 or go to:

If you wish to communicate with us, it's very easy:

a) If you have a news release, article and/or a photo to share: email us: editor@alleghanyjournal.com

b) to request media coverage of your event or special happening: email the editor at editor@alleghanyjournal.com or call 540-865-0299, After normal business hours: call Jerry E. Clark at 540-460-3513.

c) our office is located near downtown Clifton Forge at 6 W. Ridgeway Street (next to Chartwell Motors, across the street from the Elks Lodge and the CSX building).

d) at the present time, the AlleghanyJournal.com does a Monday-Wednesday-Friday show called "JournalTV" which includes news, video clips, ads, notices, obituaries and much more. The shows are found on AlleghanyJournal.com, YouTube, and Facebook.

e) with our multi-county reach (actually worldwide now via the Internet), you may engage with customers within a short distance of your business as well as former residents and associates. Ads for employment, special events, special promotions and sales, legal notices and more are now much more effective. Let us know if we may work with you or serve you in any manner.

Jerry E. Clark, Editor

P.S. Many of you may remember us from the days that we owned The Daily Review and Alleghany Highlander newspapers in Alleghany County, as well as our newspapers in Rockbridge County known as the Buena Vista News and the Rockbridge Weekly. With over 40 years of regional news coverage and ad composition experience, we're knowledgeable about these markets. We're dedicated to serving our readers and viewers as never before.
